

Charles McFadden

*Senior Vice President, Governmental Affairs and Economic Development
SCANA Corporation*

Charles McFadden, 66, joined SCE&G in 1969.

A native of Fort Mill, South Carolina, McFadden earned a Bachelor of Science degree in banking and finance from the University of South Carolina in 1968.

McFadden transferred from SCE&G to SCANA Corporation in 1987 as vice president of strategic planning and corporate services. He later returned to SCE&G as vice president of human resources and corporate communication and, in 1991, was named vice president of customer relations for the Southern Division. McFadden went on to serve as vice president of customer service and also as vice president of electric service. In 1997, he became vice president of governmental affairs and economic development for SCANA Corporation, and was appointed senior vice president of governmental affairs and economic development six years later. In his current role, McFadden is responsible for economic development activities and also for developing and maintaining strong relationships with all levels of government – federal, state and local – as well as certain regulatory agencies.

McFadden currently serves on the South Carolina State Chamber of Commerce Legislative Agenda Task Force and PAC Committee, and is a board member of the Palmetto Agribusiness Council, the Greater Columbia Chamber of Commerce Good to Great Board and the South Carolina Senate Economic Development Advisory Committee.
