

Sarena D. Burch

Senior Vice President, Fuel Procurement and Asset Management SCANA Corporation

Sarena Burch, 52, joined SCANA in 1991.

A native of West Columbia, South Carolina, Burch is a graduate of Converse College and the University of South Carolina. She earned a bachelor degree in arts from Converse in 1978 and graduated from the USC School of Law in 1981.

Burch began her career as deputy general counsel and assistant secretary for SCANA and all its small business units. She is responsible for SCANA's fuel supply and capacity strategy to ensure that SCANA is responsive to the regulatory requirements in North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia. She also manages SCANA's Strategic Sourcing department.

Active in various community and non-profit organizations, Burch is on the board of directors for the Killingsworth Home and serves on the board of the Healthy Learners Program, the United Way of the Midlands and the Converse College Board of Visitors. Burch's professional memberships include the Energy Bar Association, the South Carolina Women's Lawyers Association, the Southern Gas Association, the American Coal Council and Women in Nuclear. She is also the sponsor of SCANA's Women's Leadership Group and a member of Northside Baptist Church in West Columbia, South Carolina.