

Iris Griffin

*Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer
SCANA Corporation*

Iris Griffin is Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer for SCANA Corporation. Griffin is responsible for planning, directing and overseeing the organization's finance functions including accounting, financial planning, investor relations and treasury.

Previously, Griffin served as vice president of Finance and held leadership roles in Audit Services, Privacy, Corporate Compliance, Investor Relations, and Rate and Regulatory Affairs. Prior to joining SCANA, she worked at Scott McElveen in Columbia, SC, and Ernst & Young in Raleigh, NC.

Griffin actively serves the community on the Finance Committee for the South Carolina Chamber of Commerce; the Advisory Board for Central SC Habitat for Humanity; the Finance Committee of Sexual Trauma Services of the Midlands; and the South Carolina Community Block Grants for Education Committee. She also previously served in leadership roles on boards for Senior Resources and Columbia City Ballet.

She is a Liberty Fellow and Phi Beta Kappa.

A summa cum laude graduate from the South Carolina Honors College at the University of South Carolina, Griffin earned a Bachelor of Science in Accounting and a Master of Accountancy. She is also a certified public accountant in South Carolina.

A native of Bennettsville, South Carolina, Griffin lives in Chapin, South Carolina with her husband and son.