

Randal M. Senn
Senior Vice President of Administration
SCANA Corporation

Randy Senn joined SCANA in 1977. As Senior Vice President of Administrative Services he is responsible for human resources, information technology, strategic planning, facilities services, fleet services, marketing communications, corporate security and strategic sourcing.

Prior to his current role, Senn served as Vice President and Chief Information Officer for more than 13 years, responsible for overseeing SCANA's technology services and strategies. In addition, he has held leadership roles in accounting, customer billing and shareholder services.

Over his career at SCANA, Senn served as project manager for such critical projects as SCANA's General Ledger System implementation, Year 2000 compliance, and IT consolidation during the merger of SCANA and Public Service Company of North Carolina.

Senn graduated the University of South Carolina with a bachelor's in Accounting. He is also a graduate of Leadership South Carolina and the Riley Foundation Diversity Leadership Initiative. He has completed The Information Technology Management Course at the Georgia Institute of Technology and The CIO Academy at the University of South Carolina's College of Engineering and Information Technology.

In addition to serving as Chairman of the Board for Special Olympics S.C., Senn has served on other non-profit boards, including Sexual Trauma Services of the Midlands; Fast Forward; the S.C. Governor's School for Science and Math Foundation Board; and the Governor's School for Science and Math Board of Trustees.

Senn and Jane, his wife of 38 years, live in Lexington, S.C. and have two children and two grandsons.
