

Sarena D. Burch

*Senior Vice President, Risk Management & Corporate Compliance
SCANA Corporation*

Sarena Burch joined SCANA in 1991 and has responsibility for audit services, corporate and FERC compliance, privacy and risk management activities. She is also the company's risk management officer and corporate compliance officer. She was formerly responsible for SCANA's fuel supply and capacity strategy, strategic sourcing and power marketing departments. Prior to that she was deputy general counsel and assistant secretary for SCANA Corporation and its subsidiaries.

Burch is a member of the Energy Bar Association, the South Carolina Women's Lawyers Association, American Coal Council, Women in Nuclear and the Southern Gas Association.

She serves on the board of the ETV Endowment of South Carolina, United Way of the Midlands and St. Lawrence Place. She is vice chair of the Richland Library Foundation board. She is the sponsor of SCANA's Women's Leadership Group. In 2014 she was honored as a Woman of Distinction by the Girl Scouts of SC Mountains to Midlands Council.

A native of West Columbia, S.C., Ms. Burch earned a Bachelor of Arts degree at Converse College, and a juris doctor at the University of South Carolina School of Law.