

Jim Odell Stuckey
Senior Vice President and General Counsel
SCANA Corporation

Jim Stuckey joined SCANA in 2009.

Prior to joining SCANA, Stuckey practiced employment law and general litigation with firms in Columbia, SC. He also served as Chief Legal Counsel for the South Carolina Office of the Governor from 1999-2001. He began his career as a law clerk to a United States District Judge in Richmond, VA.

Stuckey is a former Chair of the Board of Directors of South Carolina Legal Services and the American Bar Association's Standing Committee on Professionalism.

A native of Bishopville, SC, Stuckey earned his law degree from the Duke University School of Law and earned a Bachelor of Arts in Journalism from the University of South Carolina's Honors College.

Stuckey and his wife, Bernita, have three sons.